

List of Illustrations

Figure 1. Aerial view of Squaw Valley, circa 1954	5
Figure 2. Squaw Valley location map	6
Figure 3. Aerial view of Squaw Valley Ski Area in winter	9
Figure 4. Cable car with Squaw Valley Ski Area and Lake Tahoe in the background.....	10
Figure 5. Squaw Valley Ski Area base in the mid-1950s	13
Figure 6. Alexander Cushing in 2004	14
Figure 7. Rendering prepared for the hosting bid shows modest and compact winter sports facilities.....	16
Figure 8. Aerial view of Olympic Village and athlete center	21
Figure 9. Alpine race courses shown on current ski area.....	24
Figure 10. View of the jumping hill from the landing area and run out	25
Figure 11. Blyth Arena under construction during the winter of 1958-59	26
Figure 12. Layout of Olympic facilities in Squaw Valley	28
Figure 13. Aerial view of Blyth Arena and speed skating track	29
Figure 14. Interior view of Blyth Arena during a U.S. versus Czechoslovakia match	30
Figure 15. Front exterior of Blyth Arena	31
Figure 16. Tribune of Honor with the Tower of Nations and Olympic flame cauldron	32
Figure 17. Disney inspired sculptures decorated the Avenue of Athletes	34

Figure 18. California Olympic Center served the needs of spectators	35
Figure 19. Squaw Valley Chapel today	37
Figure 20. Chief of Course Wendall Broomhall (l) and Chief of Race C. Allison Merrill.....	39
Figure 21. Map showing Olympic cross-country trails and shooting ranges at McKinney Creek cross-country venue.....	40
Figure 22. Timing, communications and press building at the McKinney Creek cross-country venue.....	41
Figure 23. Restored Tucker Sno-Cat used to groom McKinney Creek cross-country trails	41
Figure 24. View of McKinney Creek stadium toward the trail network	42
Figure 25. A biathlete shoots at the 200-meter range during the 1959 North American Championships on the McKinney Creek biathlon course.....	44
Figure 26. Aerial view of temporary parking lots in Squaw Valley meadow	49
Figure 27. Ticketing and entry gates with California Olympic Center in background.....	50
Figure 28. U.S. Forest Service sign in Squaw Valley bearing VIII Olympic Winter Games logo	52
Figure 29. Award medal design for top three finishers in competition	53
Figure 30. Elapsed time display at the McKinney Creek venue	55
Figure 31. IBM RAMAC 305 computer similar to type used to process competition results	56
Figure 32. Walt Disney (front right) confers with Willy Schaeffler on pageantry and decorations at Squaw Valley	61
Figure 33. The raging snowstorm temporarily abates as the opening ceremonies begin.....	62
Figure 34. The flags of the nations rise in unison during the opening ceremonies	63
Figure 35. Athletes and officials assemble in Blyth Arena for the opening ceremonies	64
Figure 36. Canadian athletes leave the arena following the opening ceremonies	65

Figure 37. The Marine Corps Band plays the "Star Spangled Banner" following the lighting of the Olympic flame	66
Figure 38. Herald trumpets signal the imminent beginning of a medal awards ceremony.....	67
Figure 39. Spectators watch the finish of the women's slalom race	70
Figure 40. Silver medalist Penny Pitou (United States) aggressively attacks the women's downhill course	71
Figure 41. A competitor skis the women's giant slalom course..	72
Figure 42. Spectators watch a competitor cross the finish line in the women's giant slalom.....	74
Figure 43. An Olympic official presents the women's slalom gold medal to Anne Heggtveit of Canada as silver medalist Betsy Snite (l) of the United States and bronze medalist Barbara-Maria Henneberger (r) of Germany await their turn	75
Figure 44. A competitor attacks the men's giant slalom course..	79
Figure 45. A competitor negotiates the middle section of the men's giants lalom.....	80
Figure 46. Start of the men's downhill at the Palisades on Squaw Peak.....	82
Figure 47. A competitor approaches the finish of the men's downhill course.....	83
Figure 48. Willy Bogner of Germany surveys the men's slalom course	85
Figure 49. American Tommy Corcoran skis to a ninth place finish in the men's slalom.....	86
Figure 50. Matthias Leitner of Austria on his silver medal run in the men's slalom	87
Figure 51. Charles Bozon (France) skis to a bronze medal in the men's slalom.....	88
Figure 52. Spectators gather to watch the finish of the men's slalom on KT-22	88
Figure 53. View from the top of the jumping hill in-run	92
Figure 54. Nordic combined gold medalist Georg Thoma of Germany in December 1960	94
Figure 55. Aerial view of McKinney Creek stadium, site of cross-country and biathlon competitions.....	97

Figure 56. Time keepers used electronic and hand methods to record times as a skier passes through the stadium.....	98
Figure 57. A skier passes through the McKinney Creek stadium for a time check.....	100
Figure 58. Sixten Jernberg of Sweden crosses the finish line to win the silver medal in the 15-kilometer cross-country race	101
Figure 59. Veikko Hakulinen of Finland surges across the finish to take the bronze medal in the 15-kilometer cross-country race	103
Figure 60. Competitors gather at the waxing hut to prepare their skis for the race	103
Figure 61. In the stadium, Veikko Hakulinen (r) of Finland surges ahead of Hakon Brusveen of Norway to win the men's 4x10km relay by 0.8-second	107
Figure 62. The 1960 United States Nordic and biathlon team poses in front of the McKinney Creek stadium scoreboard.....	108
Figure 63. The Swedish women's Nordic team shown here includes the winners of the gold medal in the 3x5km relay.....	112
Figure 64. The 20-kilometer biathlon course showing shooting ranges.....	115
Figure 65. Fifth place finisher Valentin Pchenitzin of the Soviet Union shoots at the 200-meter range	117
Figure 66. Women figure skaters practice on the West Rink as spectators look on	120
Figure 67. Silver medalist Sjoukje Dijkstra of the Netherlands completes her free skating program before an appreciative crowd in Blyth Arena.....	121
Figure 68. Silver medalist Karol Divin of Czechoslovakia executes a spectacular jump during the free skating program ..	125
Figure 69. A pair team puts on an impromptu exhibition on the West Rink	128
Figure 70. Pair silver medalists Hans Jürgen Bäuml and Marika Kilius of Germany at the athlete's center in Olympic Village ..	129
Figure 71. United States and Sweden players follow the puck in a preliminary round game	134

Figure 72. Showing 17 seconds remaining on the clock, the Soviets make an unsuccessful attempt to tie the game against the United States	135
Figure 73. The American team faces down the Czechs to a 9-4 final score to take the gold medal	137
Figure 74. Speed skaters warm up before a race.....	142
Figure 75. From left to right, speed skaters Floyd Bedbury (United States), Keith Meyer (United States), Kjall Beckman (Sweden) and Sexten Albenseon (Sweden) warm up on the 400-meter track	144
Figure 76. Speed skaters compete for best elapsed time in paired competition	145
Figure 77. From left to right, Yevgeny Grishin (Soviet Union) and Roald Aas (Norway) jointly accept the gold medal for the 1,500-meter race while bronze medalist Boris Stenin (Soviet Union) looks on.....	147
Figure 78. Jumper on the in-run leading to the takeoff point....	151
Figure 79. A U.S. ski jumper shows excellent form during a practice session	152
Figure 80. Gold medalist Helmut Recknagel of Germany shows his excellent form in another competition.....	153
Figure 81. The U.S. jumping squad at the base of the jumping hill	154
Figure 82. The flag bearers form a semicircle around the podium as the closing ceremonies are about to begin.....	157
Figure 83. Disney-inspired fireworks light up the night sky signaling the end of the VIII Olympic Winter Games	158
Figure 84. Squaw Valley base facilities as they appeared in 2009	169
Figure 85. Interpretive panel for McKinney Creek cross-country venue at Sugar Pine Point State Park.....	170

On the cover: The Tribune of Honor with the Olympic flame cauldron and Tower of Nations (Photo by Bill Briner)

